University Concentration in Science and Technology (ST)
Checksheet Effective for Graduating Class of 1994*

This concentration requires in-depth study and practice of theories and methods of science and technology.

Requirements:
A concentration or minor in one science or technology program. (For further information see the IDST Advising Office or the Coordinator the HST program.)

1. 9 hours at the 3000 or 4000 level

   __________________________________________(3) ( )

   __________________________________________(3) ( )

   __________________________________________(3) ( )

2. 9 (or, in the case of some minors, more) hours of electives

   __________________________________________(3) ( )

   __________________________________________(3) ( )

   __________________________________________(3) ( )

*Effective as of Fall 1990. Only the courses taken specifically for this concentration can count for the student's QCA in it.