Department of Science & Technology in Society
Graduate Program in Science & Technology Studies

Spring 2008
Seminars & events of interest
(Blacksburg Campus)
Last Update: March 10, 2008

Friday, March 14
4 PM
1870 Litton Reaves

Monday, March 17
4:15 PM
190 Holden Hall (Auditorium)
“'bracketed numbers and pulsing stars,’ or ‘technology with a human face’: The Virtual Patient” – Laura Behling (Gustavus Adolphus College). For more info, contact bhausman@vt.edu

Friday, March 21
4 PM
132 Lane Hall
Topic TBA
Jean Miller (VT STS)

Friday, March 28
4 PM
132 Lane Hall
“Markets as Simulations: Economic Theory and Market Design in the Restructured Electricity Industry” - Daniel Breslau (VT STS)

Thursday, April 3
4 PM
134 Lane Hall
“Biology on Display: Natural History and Science Museums in the 20th Century” - Karen Rader (Virginia Commonwealth U.)

Friday, April 18
4 PM
132 Lane Hall
“Pharmasociality: Notes Toward a new Social Study of Drugs” - Hugh Gusterson (George Mason U.)

Friday, April 25
4 PM
132 Lane Hall
"The Role of Ecological Restoration in the Cultural & Political Revitalization of the White Mtn Apache Tribe, 1933-2000.” - David Tomblin (VT STS)

For more information contact Tom Staley at tstaley@vt.edu or see www.sts.vt.edu